The Grand Secretary's carulicate of at - The election excitement has passed away and left everything dreadfully flat. There are still a few persons who frequent the newspaper offices in search of the latest intelligence, and the feeling of suspense as to how the votes of the three doubtful State will be counted still exists. But the excitement if not the interest has worn off, and the seekers after news are neither so clamorous nor numerous.

Meeting of Committees.

The committees of arrangements appointed by the two Tilden and Vance clubs of the city, at their meetings Monday night, held a joint meeting last evening at Metropolitan Hall. It was called to order by B. C. Manly, the chairm so.

A joint committee from the two clubs, to solicit subscriptions, was appointed as follows: From the Mechapics' club, P. C. Flemming, J. H. Green, John D. Thompson, from the Young Men's club, W. R. Gales, W. E. Weaver, A. Kreth, J. C. S. Lumsden and G. T. Stronach were added to this committee and J. J. Litchford was appointed treasurer.

Gen. W. R Cox was appointed chief marshal, with Maj. B. C. Manly as his assistant, and the chief marshal was authorized to pelect an equal number of aids from each club.

J. M. Broughton moved that all resident and visiting Democrats be invited to meet at M tropoli an at 1:30 o'clock P. M., on the lay of Gov. Vance's arrival here, and proceed to the depot to escort h m into the city. and that merchants be requested to close their places of business during

What They Think of Each Other.

The following makes interesting reading. It is from! the North Carolina Blackguard, alias the Wilmington Post (Radical), and shows the opinion which is held by Cannaday, Cassidey and that set, of Keogh Settle, the Greensboro ring and that set. This is the extract, and it is refreshing for a Democrat to read it :

The disaster that befel the Republican party in North Carolina on Tuesday, is more the result of the bad management of the idiots who think they are statesmen and political generals than of any superior or even adroit management on the part of the Democratic leaders. When a parcel of men seat themselves in softly cushioned chairs, swill whiskey and do any amount of blowing, considering their own ease and comfort and ignoring and disregarding the warnings of men who wear and have worn the harness, nothing else is to be expected but disaster and de manage hereafter, or it may as well be consigned to the tomb of the capu-The consigning has already been

'did."

One Vote That He Lost.

There was one Democratic vote which Gov. Vance lost that he ought to have had, and one which he did not get through no fault of his own. It was in the case of an old man who believes in reversing the scriptural plan and visiting the sins of the children upon the father. "I won't vote for him," says the old man, "he is a clever man, and would make a good Governor, but he's got such bad boys."

Hearing which, the eldest of these hopefuls turned to the brother next in age, who happened to be present, and reproved him with: 'Bud, I'll ber dogged if you mustn't reform; if you don't you'll beat the old man and there's no help for it."

Regular chips of the old block, are those boys of Gov. Vance. Every one of them born wags.

How They Treat a Raleigh Paper Abroad.

The Charlotte Southern Home speaks thus of the treatment which was recently accorded a Raleigh paper in Charlotte: "Mr. J. S. Shafer. of the free-reading 100m on Tryon street, on Wednesday hung out his file of the Raleigh Constitution, and a specimen of the 'Loody shirt,' both dressed in mourning-crape, expressive of the political situation. The sight afforded a good deal of amusement to the passers by, Shafer is true blue."

Death of an Aged Lady.

Mrs. Jane I. Haywood died at her residence in this city last evening, after a long illness. She was the reliet of Hon. William H. Haywood, one of the most distinguished members of the North Carolina bar, and the mother of Col. Ed Graham Haywood. Mrs. Haywood was one of the old residents of the city. She was an amiable and lovable character, and her death will be regretted by a very wide circle.

Serenade to Rev. G. H. White.

A correspondent writes us that the white and colored citizens of Halifax, in token of the valuable and efficient services rendered by the Rev. Garland H. White In the Democratic cause, tendered him a grand serenade at his residence in that town last Monday night. Specches were delivered congratulatory of the people upon the great Democratic triumph, by Rev. Garland H. White, and Daniel Lewis, Esq., of Washington, D. C.

Personal. Capt. C. M. Cooke, of Franklin, is in the city.

S. C. Barnett, Esq., of Person, is registered at the Yarborough House. The condition of Mrs. Judge Badger, who was stricken with paralysis one evening last week, is exceedingly critical. She was not expected to live through last night. Her son, Mr. John Williams, who is suffering from heart disease, is in hardly a less dangerous situation. Col. T. L. Hargrove has retu ned from his home in Oxford. He is still in very feeble health.

Sympathy from Mecklenburg.

These words of kind sympathy are from the Southern Home Char lotte: "Amid the general rejoicing, we pause to regret that our gallant candidates in Wake, particularly our young friend Snow, were defeated by a doz n votes or so. Better luck next time."

PENDER county did not go entire ly to the Republicans. The Democrats elected the Sheriff.

THE Democrats of Yancey gain more than 300 votes over the Merrimon vote. Much of this success is due to the hard work of C. R. Byrd, Esq., the excellent member of the Constitutional Convention from Yancey.

THE SPEAKERSHIPS.

To-day a correspondent presents the name of Henry G. Williams, Esq., of the Wilson Advance, for President of the Senate. Mr. Williams is one of the most astu e public men of North Carolina, besides being an editor of most vigorous and facile powers. His experience in public affairs; his courteous bearing; his firmness and decision of character, combine to give him those quali ties which are essential in a presiding officer; and he would no doubt fill the position with credit to himself, acceptability to the Senate, and usefulness and honor to the State.

"Catawba" suggests the name of John S. Henderson, Esq., of Rowan for Speaker of the House. No worthier name than this can be mentioned in connection with the position re ferred to. As a parliamentarian he has experience; as a young statesman he possesses ability and learning in an eminent degree; and as a man he is gifted with those traits of character which win the confidence and command the respect of those with whom he is thrown, in private or in public life. He rendered valuable service in the Constitutional Convention; and in the campaign just passed did splendid work for the amend-

LOUISIANA'S ELECTORAL VOTE There is hardly a reasonable doubt that Tilden has carried Louisiana, fairly, honestly. A fair count of the vote is all that is needed. The question to-day is, will this be done? There are three stages of Louis iana's electoral vote for President to be gone through with. These are (1) the examination of the supervisors' returns and the ascertainment by Kellogg, in the presence of two or three State officers, of the persons elected to be electors. which must take place on or before the 27th of this month; (2) the meeting and voting of those electors. which must take place on the 6th of next month, and the sending a certiticate of their votes to Washington, which must take place before the first Wednesday in January; and (3) the opening of those certificates by the President of the Senate and the counting of the votes therein described, which must take place on the second Wednesday in February. The great peril to the country is in the first stage, or the creation of the electors. This being practically in the hands of Kellogg, there is danger that he will count in the Hayes electors, issue to them the certificats of election, and shift the whole business to the shoulders of the President of the Senate; in which case there would arise a wrangle between the this country has never witnessed before. What would be its ultimate resuit, there is no one wise enough to foresee.

The hope of the country lies in the fact that the cowardly despot who rules over Louisiana, will not have the courage to suppress or prevent the fact of Tilden's election. The gaze of the world is upon him. The great Democratic party of the North . the good and the powerful men ali over the country are watching him; Uncle Samuel has his eye fixed upon him. He is observed too closely, We believe he cannot accomplish his dark and villainous purpose.

Should Kellogg succeed in his trick Florida and South Carolina will share the same fate; and the matter will stand over until the official count at Washington. In the meantime, let us of North Carolina turn our attention upon our home affairs; and leave the settlement of the matter to the Northern Democra's. If Tilden and his friends, will suffer Hayes and his rascally backers to cheat them out of a victory so nobly fought and so fairly won, they deserve the fate that would await them. 'The South can afford to look on, and bide her time.

THE BAPTIST CONVENTION.

The Convention which as embles in this city to-day, represents a church whose history constitutes one of the most prominent features connected with the religious annals of North Carolina. It is interesting to trace the rise and progress of this great denomination of christians, since it first struck root within our borders, on until the present stage of its wonderful growth.

There were individual Baptists in North Carolina as far back as 1690, but there was no church until 1727. In that year a church was organized at Shiloh, Camden county, which is still a large and flourishing body, having a membership of over 500. In 1742 a second colony settled in Halifax county and organized a church. In 1754 a third colony settled on Sandy Creek in what was then Guilford county, also organizing a church. From these three colonies most of the Baptists of the State have sprung In 1790 there were 94 churches with a little over 7,000 members. To-day there are more than 100,000 members in the State; and they wield a most potent influence in the grand work of the moral and religious elevation of the people.

For many years they had no general organization and no schools or of the churches throughout the States; the promotion of education, and of the work of home and foreign missions. At one of the earliest sessions, a committee of which the late Dr. Hooper was chairman, was ap pointed to report on the expediency of establishing an educational institation of high grade. Wake Forest Cellege is the matured fruit of this movement.

The convention has also been large ly engaged in the work of home missions. The churches in this city, Goldsboro, Greensboro, Wilmington, Charlotte and many other portions of the State are in part or in whole, the results of the missionary work of the

The work of the convention will be of deep interest, although it has no legislative powers. According to the theory of the Baptists, each local church is complete and independent in itself. From its decisions there are no appeals. The convention is therefore only an assemblage of delegates from churches and district associations, to devise plans and modes of action, to be submitted to the churches. These plans or measures the churches are free to adopt or reject as they see proper. The object claiming the largest sh re of the attention of the denomination at this time is the endowment of that poble institution of learning, Wake Forest College. This matter will of course come prominently before the body. Dr. Boyce will also be here in the interest of the Southern Baptist The ological Seminary, which, like Wake Forest College, lost its endowment in the war, and which its friends are striving to replace. Dr. Tupper, of Richmond, Va., the Foreign Mission Secretary, will also be here to present the claims of the work of the Southern Baptists in Asia, Africa and

Southern Europe. The Baptists of this State have from the first been very earnest and practical advocates of home missions, and hence the rapidity with which their churches have increased and multiplied. They have gained a footing in almost every part of the State, and in many counties they are very strong. In Cleaveland county they have 30 churches with over 3,000 members In Wake there are 36 churches and over 5,000 members. In Granville also, they are very numerous. The mustard seed of 1690, is to-day a tree of mighty growth, capable of lodging millions within its sheltering branches. The Baptists of North Carolina have furnished many eminent men to the denomination in other States. Among them may be mentioned Rev. Jesse Mercer, who was for many years the leader of the denomination in Georgia, and whose name is perpetuated in the Baptist College of that State of which he was the founder; Dr. Maniy, who won en-and educator, in South Carolina and Alabama; Dr. Brantly, who labored in South Carolina and Georgia; and Dr. Poindexter, who died a few years ago in Virginia. In our own State to-day, many of the brightest intellects and most godly men in the christian ministry, labor within the broad folds of this church. We welcome the convention to our city; and trust that their deliberations may be attended with all wisdom, and spiritual grace.

THE SPEAKERSHIPS.

THE VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.

We furnish to the public for their consideration the following communications in regard to the Speakerships of the Senate and House of Representatives, which assemble on Monday next:

John S. Henderson, Esq., of Rowan. MR. EDITOR:

It is high time that the attention of the representatives-elect and the Democratic party especially, should be diverted to the important question of selecting a Speaker of the House. The Presidency of the Senate ought to be aud, as a western man, I think will be conceded to the east. But the great west will demand of both parties the redemption of their pledges in legislating for the completion of the Western North Carolina Railroad, and to ensure that end the organization of the House must not be placed in the hands of any man, who has been even suspected of sym pathizing with any hostile interest or corporation, or connection with any known enemies.

At the suggestion of many western Democrats the name of John S. Henderson, of Rowan, is presented to the public. Mr. Henderson was one of the best lawyers and most efficient delegates in the late convention, and is fitted by his parliamentary experience in that body for the position. He is moreover well known as a modest, christian gentleman of the highest type of probity, and for his political services, his friends point to the majority of 950 in Rowan, due in a great measure to his ability and energy as an orator and canvasser. CATAWBA.

No man in the State will fill the place with more credit than Henry G. Williams, Esq. His experience, his intelligence and gentlemanty bearing, all combine to recommend CHATHAM.

President of the Senate.

It is certain that Tilden's popular majority is more than a quarter of a million. He will not be the President of a minority of the people. Two players at bezique cutting for deal both cut aces, they tried again and both cut kings; they both cut again a third time, and here appeared two knaves. As a bezique pack consists of only thirty-two cards, all the twos, threes, fours, fives, and sixes being rejected, the improbability of such a coincidence is not so great as in a whist pack of fifty two cards; nevertheless the odds are calculated to be 5,000 to 1 against this particular event.

Good government in the South is only possible under a Democratic administration. But even a Democratic President will not find his task altogether an easy one, inheriting as he does the fruits of ten years, during which the federal government and its party agents in the south have studied to inflame the passions which now embarrass the responsible two branches of Congress, such as during fame as a preacher, scholar rulers of the union. - London Standard,

POLITICAL NOTES.

Sgringfield Republican: Somehow they don't seem to have been frightened to death over in London about the United States repudiating its debt, or anything of that sort, when they found out that Gov. Tilden had been elected Presi-

The Herald Times and Tribune all claimed that New York would determine the result of the election, and so it has. The Tilden boys do not scare worth a cent at the threats of the Radicals about Louisiana, Florida, and South Carolina, or anything else.

New York World: It is reported that Captain Mills refused to interfere to prevent a negro mob from breaking into the court house at Aiken, S. C., to destroy the ballot-boxes. He probably held that he was only called into the State to suppress the insurrection in which the rifle clubs were said to be engaged.

Richmond Whig: The election of Tilden is the fulfilment of Grant's "Let us have peace." It has broken the backbone of the Republican party, whose real strength was in the passions and prejudices of the North. The "bloody shirt" has lost its power, and "the war" no longer exists as the toesin to array section against section.

New York Tribune : "Business will revive after the election." was the assurance with which merchants were accustomed to cheer themselves and others for a few months previous to the 7th of November. Election is over, but business has not revived, and it is the general impression that the depressing effects of a Presidential campaign will continue to be felt so long as there is any uncertainty as to the results of the election.

The Wilmingto Star says that five vessels are now at the wharves of the Wilmington Compress Company loading cotton for foreign ports. A Charlotte firm are loading a vessels here, and two vessels are being loaded by parties in Augusta Ga.

Wilmington Cape Fear : Eight thousand bales of cotton are on the wharves of the Baltimore and New York Steamship lines alone, awaiting transportion. Some five steamers leave here weekly, but the business of the port demands that a steamer should go out every day.

The Reason of it. The New York Tribune of Wednesday very sensibly and compactly presented the situation : The organs will be heavy this morning with reasons for the result. We venture to suggest a few : Gov. Tilden had too many votes.

The general dissatisfaction with the administration was not quieted by the nomination of Gov. Hayes. Too many people believed that his administration would be merely a continuation of Grant's.

Hard times, People wanted a change and thought perhaps turning out the party in power might give it.

The Democrats used the best intellects in their party to address their best arguments to the intelligence of voters. The Republican canvass ran more in party grooves, and depended less on argument than on prejudice.

 The Old North State. Buffalo (N. Y.) Courier.]

An era of good feeling is reported fr m North Carolina. When the result of the State election became known and the national contest was believed to have gone the same way, citizens of both parties and of both races joined in a mass meeting at Raleigh. In a congratulatory speech. Col. Fuller, who appeared as spekesman for the successful party, eulogized the Union and pledged the new State government to protect the rights of the colored people. He said: "I tell you, colored men, in the presence of our splendid and sweeping victory, that the white men of North Carolina will protect and defend your liberties always and against all comers, even with our heart's blood if needful." Col. Richardson, editor of the leading Republican journal in the State, James H. Harris, colored member of the State Republican Committee, Gen. Cox, Chairman of the Democratic State Committee, and other speakers representing both parties came forward, the Democrats to promise an honest and honorable course now that they had obtained power, and the Republicans to declare that they acquiesced cheerfully in the situation. Taken in connection with the fact that the rival candidates for Governor stumped the State together and treated each other with all imaginable courtesy. this love-feast is full of meaning and encouragement. It will not only go far lowards ensuring friendly relations between parties and races, but set an example which must be felt sooner or later by that way ward sister, the other Carolina, in whose bordors race conflicts are still engendering hatreds more easily aroused than quieted when they have once burst into a flame. It should not be forgotten, however, that self-government has brought about the satisfactory State of affairs now reported in the Old North State, and that nothing short of the final over-hrow of carpet-bag rule will produce the same results in South Carolina.

A Timely and Proper Suggestion.

A prominent Jewish merchant in our city remarked to a friend of mine to day to this effect: "We have gained a great and glorious victory, and now instead of making a great jubilee and parade on the streets, let us have a day of public thanksgiving to God for our release from tyranny. This is a good and timely suggesion. A public thanksgiving would properly follow so great a delivernce, as it could be participated in y the successful as well as the unccessful, inasmuch as the blessing come in equal measure to all Dot Vos Mine Schickens All-De Vile. How Gov. Tilden Thinks and Talks about the Election.

The New York World of Thursday tells how Governor Tilden spent the preceding day and and how he takes the result of the election. It also gives what he said to a World reporter. It represents him as say-"When I shall be officially notified of my success I will be pleased to let you know my intentions, but not before." Upon being pressed by the reporter, however, Mr. Til-den went on. "My election was due," said be, "to the fact that people looked more to the issues of the canvass than to party restraints .-Fealty to party was to a great extent forgotten. There is no doubt that I received a great number of Republican votes, and when the result is generally known and officially proclaimed all true citizens, whether Repub. licans or Democrats, will bail the event as a great national benefit, and indicative of at least one thing, and that is the unity of all sections of the country. This is a very essential decision. The election has also been decided in part upon my record, as Governor. It was well scanned and construed in divers ways, and the result has convinced me that I have in that capacity done well enough to satisfy the masses of people. The closeness of the contest shows conclusively what opposition I had to overcome. I have every reason to be pleased with the result. I did not exp et a large majority in the Electoral College. I feel ex-tremely well to-day."

After luncheon the Governor ordered his team of bright bays, which he drove to an open, two-seated whose mercies have been from gener- phaeton, handling the reins himself, the footman being seated behind and thence to the residence of Chas. O'Connor, on Washington Heights, returning at 7:30. At an 8 o'clock dinner at his residence, in Gramercy Park, he entertained a gathering of friends, including several ladies. those present at the table numbering some forty persons. He remained at home the rest of the evening, constantly receiving dispatches from the Democratic National Headquarters. A continuous line of telegraph m ssengers was kept running between the Everett House and the Governor's residence. He did not appear anxious or excited, but rather expressed himself to those surrounding nim as entirely satisfied of his success.

> Gov. Hampton to the People -- A Temperate and Characteristic Address of Congratulation on the Victory.

Special Dispatch to News and Courier] COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 10. The following address has just been issued:

To the People of the State : In offering to our people my heartfelt congratulations and gratitude for the grand victory they have won, I venture to beg them to prove themselves worthy of it by a continued observance of good order and a rigid preservation of peace. Let us show that we seek only the restoration of good government, the return of prosperity and the establishment of parmony to the whole people of our State. In the hour of victory we should be magnanimous, and we should strive to forget the animosities of the contest by recalling the grand results of our success. Proscribing none for difference of opinion, regarding none as enemies save such as are inimical to law and order, let us all unite in the patriotic work of redeeming the State. By such conduct we can not only bring about good feeling among ali classes, but can most surely reap the fruits

MR. E. STEIGER, Publisher, New York, has issued in a handy form a map of the seat of war in Europe, carefully compiled from the very latest material and embracing the whole of Turkey in Europe, with portions of adjacent countries. It s printed in three colors and in a very attractive style, and costs but seventy five cents. It is an easily comprehended key to the geographical position and a reliable guide, wha ever shall be the i-sue of the present unsettled condition of affairs, in tracing the events of the Eastern complications.

They tell a good story of an old business man who recently found himself "cornered" financially, and desired to go into bankruptey. applied to a lawyer to know how much it would co t to have the papers made out and the business put through. He was told that the expense would be about $100, and appearing to be satisfied with the price, he told the lawyer to go ahead. The lawyer followed the instructions, and when the work was done he called for his little $100. "All right," said the bankrupt, "you can put your claim right in with the others."

Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, distinguished in surgery, and the general practice in the profession he honors, has made a valuable contribution to the medical literature of the day, in a comprehensive work entitled "The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser." While scientific throughout, it is singularly free from technical and stilted terms. It comes right down to the common sense of every-day life. Dr. Pierce is a noble specimen of American manhood. He has sprung from the people; and, with many sympathies in common with the masses, has sought to render them a substantial service in this the great work of his life.

LOUISIANA.

Republican Claims of the State-Democratic Majority 8,107 --- Perfect Quiet in New Orleans-Other Promment Gentlemen Arrived.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 14.-The Republicans state that they have infor-mation that east Baton Rouge has gone Republican by 300 majori y. The Democrats claimed it by 600. The tables published up to Saturday night of the city vote, was put down at 9,700 majority for the Democrats. The official count shows 10,016 majority for Tilden. Additional returns from the parishes do not materially change the results as telegraphed Saturday. The Democrats appear to have about 8,000 majority. The Republicans, however, still claim that they have carried the State, and that Packard will be the next Governor of Louisiana. L. Q. C. Lamar telegraphs from here to a friend that the people of New Orleans, though profoundly agitated, are quiet, and there is not the slightest purpose to disturb the public place. The proposition to place the counting of the vote under the supervision of honorable men of both parties from a distance, meets the cordial concurrence of the entire community.

In addition to the gentlemen before reported as arriving here, the following have also reached the city : Ex-Govs. Curtin and Biger, Hon. Sam. Randall and M. P. Handy, of Penn., Col. Jno. C Burch, Maj. T. O'Conner, Jno. Keating and W. H. Carrol, of Tenn., and O. Ottendorfer. of New York.

The Democratic committee have complete returns made .up from duplicate lists of the supervisors showing Tilden's majority in the State 8,107, by which majority they claim they have carried the State. The returns show Nichols' majority to be nearly 9,000.

This city is very quiet. The politicians are anxiously awaiting the action of the returning beard which, by law, is required to meet ten days

SOUTH CAROLINA.

Republican Compromise Rejected-An Evidence of Weakness.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 14 .- A Columbia special to the News and Courier. says the Republicans had made a proposition to give the State to Hampton and Hayes, which the Democrats rejected.

FOREIGN.

London, Nov. 14.-The Post in conspicuous paragraph confirms the report that Russia is about to mobilize her army. It is stated that Russia intends after January to levy all her taxes in gold. This increases her tariff twenty per cent. The most special correspondents take a gloomy view of the situation. The Post's, Berlin dispatch reports that the Russian journals say war is determined on.

A Reuter from St. Petersburg, says theCzar has ordered the mobilization of a part of the Russian army. A circular of Prince Gortschakoff, the Russian Premier to the Russian representatives abroad, explaining this measure, says: "The Czar does not wish war, and will if possible avoid it. He is, however, determined that the principles of justice which have been recognized by the whole of Europe, shall necessarily be carried out in Turkey under efficacious gaurantees.'

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 14.—Several English officers of the corps of royal engineers have arrived here. Third million of Turkish pounds of the new paper currency is about to be issued.

Warlike Preparations on the Part of Russia.

LONDON, Nov. 14 .- A special dispatch from Berlin to the Pall Mall Gozette says Russia has given large orders to Berlin houses for military exports. Should Russia persist in her warlike policy, there is reason to believe she will be perfectly isolated. Germany is understood to be pledged to the observance of neutrality as against Austria, with an engagement to watch the Polish provinces, presumedly to assist in repressing any Polish rising.

Assembling of the Alabama Legislature. MONTGOMERY, Nov. 14.—The Leg islature convened to-day. Nearly every member was present. The Democratic caucus nominated S. W Cobb President of the Senate, and

Hon. N. N. Clements Speaker of the House.

Protestant Episcopal Church Congress. Boston, Nov. 14 -The Third Church Congress of the Protestant Episcopal Church opened this morning with preliminary communion, in St. Paul's Church. Bishop Paddock called the congress to order and delivered the opening address. Rev. Sam'l Osgood, of New York, read a paper on "The true place of art in christianity."

MISCELLANEOUS TELEGRAMS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—The tone of the New York papers regarding the result is unchanged.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.- The Times' Tallahassee special says Auger had arrived yesterday afternoon and taken command of the troops.

Fire at Savannah. SAVANNAH, Nov. 14, 2:40 a. m.— Two thousand five hundred bales of cotton, 20 empty and 20 loaded cars of freight, have been burnt. The fire is under control. The warehouse contained fertilizers, which were also destroyed.

Probabilities,

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14 .-- For the South Atlantic States, warmer south-east to southwest winds, falling barometer, increasing cloudiness and possibly rain will prevail.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

Prominent Democratic Visitors-Rule Served on the Canvassers-Demo-crats Cheerful--Hampton's Election Conceded.

COLUMBIA, Nov 14-The following prominent Democrats : Ex-Gov Parker, of New Jersey, Senator Randolph, of New Jersey, Hon Montgomery Blair, of Marvland, Hon A H Stuart, of Virginia, Hon G V Cox, are here. All is quiet and the Democrats are cheerful.

CHARLESTON, Nov 14-The Supreme Court, a full bench, issued a rule requiring the board of canvasers to answer Thursday why writs of prohibition should not be issued, iestraining from judicial functions and confining them to ministerial furctions only.

LATER.—Nothing has transpired since the action of the Supreme Court this morning. The Democra's are cheerful and everything is quiet. The Republicans concede Hampton's election. The action of the board of convassers renders it impossible to get figure returns.

LOUISIANA.

The Democrats Invite the Republicans to Meet Them for Conference.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 14.—The Democrats assembled at New Orleans have formally invited the Republicans assembled there at the President's request, to meet them for or-ganization with a view of carry out the object desired.

Marine Accident. PRILAND, ME., Nov. 14-The bark Roberts Wilmington, N. C., for Hull, was towed here after grounding outside the break-water. The Roberts slipped three anchors and unshipped her rudder. Her bottom is supposed to be damaged.

The Influence of Malaria Counteracted.

That the batmful i fluence upon the human system of malaria may be effectively counteract d has been demonstrated for years rost by the projection afformed the inhabitants of vast missma-breeding districts in North and South America, Guatema a. Mexico and the West Indies, by Hostetter's Ftomach Bitters. Used as a preventive, they have invariably been found to be a most reliable saf guard against chills and fever, bilious remittent, and still more malignant types of malarious disease, and when employed as a remedy have always proved their adequacy to the task of eradi asing such maladies from the system. For disorders of the stomach liver and bowels, which in hot climates and missmatic localities are particularly rife, the bitters are a primpt and thorough remedy. They also strengthen the system, tranquilize the nerves, promote digestion and sound a sep, and impart unwonted relish for food. The Influence of Majaria Counteracted.

THE NORTH CAROLINA FARMER.

J.41 Enniss:

Pear sir—I have been a practical farmer for forty yea. s, and during that time have taken the best agricultural journals of the day, and I undertake to say that there is more valuable practical information to our farmers in the first and second numbers of the "North Carolina Farmer," than in any dozen copies of the gricultural papers I have taken, and I do most carnestly recommend it to every armer in our State, as the paper f r him, above all others.
